Canada's electoral map is changing and Elections Canada is seeking a

Returning Officer

Your opportunity to serve democracy in

- Wellington-Halton Hills

Qualifications

To work as a returning officer, you must be a Canadian citizen, at least 18 years old, and live in the federal riding where you're applying to work.

Your job is to manage the election in your riding. The work is varied, challenging and rewarding. If you have project management experience, with strong skills in finance and human resources, this may be the job for you.

Pay Rates and Work Conditions

Pay rates are set by regulation. The current fee for an election period is about $24,250. You can expect to work close to 500 hours in the year leading up to an election, at a rate of $48.04 per hour. (These rates are under review.)

Returning officers are appointed for a 10-year term. During this time, you must remain non-partisan.

How to Apply

Go to www.elections.ca and click on "Employment" to complete an application form or to find out more about the job and the new riding boundaries. You can also call Elections Canada at 1-800-463-6868 for more details.

Applications must be received by midnight on August 26, 2014.

Cette offre d'emploi est également disponible en français à www.elections.ca.

Elections Canada is an independent body set up by Parliament to conduct federal elections, by-elections and referendums.
