New hunting department opens at Canadian Tire

Canadian Tire has expanded its outdoor recreation presence with launch of its Hunting Pro Shop to the local Halton Hills community. The Hunting Pro Shop section officially opened on Friday, Sept. 12, and is currently the only Pro Shop location to service the hunting needs of Canadian Tire customers in the GTA. Located within the Sporting Goods Department of the Georgetown Canadian Tire, the Pro Shop model provides a greatly expanded selection of the latest and most innovative products for hunting enthusiasts. Services include: The sale of fishing/hunting/migratory bird licences; the sale of live bait and special orders for hunting accessories, and firearms. Georgetown Canadian Tire General Manager Andrew Jonkman (seated), Sports and Customer Service Manager Scott Galloway and merchandiser Trish Brown show off just a few of the items in the new hunting and fishing department.

NEW BIRD-FRIENDLY CERTIFIED HAY PROGRAM

A program to encourage bird-friendly hay production

Thank you to our 2014 participants

This year nine farms grew 143 acres of Bird-Friendly Certified Hay providing habitat for at least 78 bobolink and eastern meadowlark.

Let's build on this success.

Our 2015 goal: 500 acres

GROW IT. BUY IT. RENT YOUR LAND FOR HAY PRODUCTION.

Register at birdfriendlyhay.ca.

Generously supported by MNRF Species at Risk Stewardship Fund.
