Electric Stampede on Friday to help food bank with donations

Norval country bar Nashville North and Toronto-based event producer Brendan Coates, a Georgetown resident, are bringing big city sounds and festival lights to our small town this Thanksgiving weekend.

Marking its third edition of Electric Stampede this Friday, Oct 10 at 9 p.m. celebrates the return of Nashville North's long weekend EDM parties.

This is a 19+ event. For those who attended the previous Stampedes last Easter and Family Day, the 2,000 combined guests were not disappointed. Internationally renowned DJs DVBBS, Jelo, Moguai, Dzeko & Torres all flew in for their guest appearances inside the famous barn-style bar turned rave.

This edition marks a special evening as the venue has opened its doors to collect non-perishable food items for the Georgetown Food Bank, while also donating a turkey with every 100 patrons with hopes to donate 10 or more turkeys this Friday night.

Friday's Norval event is headlined by Los Angeles resident progressive/electro house DJ Hot Mouth, who's released tracks on Deadmau5's label "Mau5trap" more recently latest "Bonk" Oct 6 through Spinnin Records.

Toronto living legend DJ Deko-ze, who is infamous for his lively performances, will close the night, while DJ Miss Tara, a Miss Canada beauty pageant winner and country ambassador will set the pace early.

Ryan Shepherd from Georgetown is performing back2back with KidCitySoul and DjDrop from Brampton, who will get the show going at 9 p.m.

With students returning home for the first time this season, Friday will surely host to great moments and dancing while assisting the Georgetown food bank for this holiday weekend.

Please remember to bring a non-perishable food item upon arrival to the show. For ticket information call 416-709-4308 or purchase on line www.shipshow.wantickets.com

Mangia Bene to host free Thanksgiving dinner

Food truck Mangia Bene, located on Guelph St. beside Shoeless Joe's, is offering a free Thanksgiving dinner on Monday, Oct. 13 for those who do not have a family dinner to attend.

The dinner, with turkey and all the trimmings plus apple pie, will be offered between 2-6 p.m.

While the dinner is free, donations to the Georgetown Hospital or the Toronto Hospital for Sick Children are welcome.

Mangia Bene is owned and operated by Russel Priola, a master chef who has worked in restaurants in Europe and across North America. Menu options include lasagna, sandwiches, burgers, pasta dishes, veal scaloppini and pollo marsala and their specialty sandwich, the porcubonetta.
