Cruisin' to a $4,000 cheque

Thursday evenings at Nashville North in Norval have become a popular destination for classic car enthusiasts in the summer months and organizers of Cruise Nights have been generating funds for the Georgetown Hospital Foundation this summer by purchasing 50/50 tickets and slices of Topper's Pizza in the parking lot. Mike and Lynne Boyd have helped organize the weekly showcase for the past 15 years and have received support from numerous local sponsors, including Harvey's/Swiss Chalet, which has donated gift certificates as door prizes and for the past two years provided 150 dinners for the Cruise Nights participants. Handing over the $4,000 cheque were (front, from left): Georgetown Harvey's/Swiss Chalet owner Paul Aguire, Cruise Nights volunteer Lynne Boyd, K.C. Carruthers, Heather Kaufman and Shelley Phipps from the Georgetown Hospital Foundation, volunteer Sharon Gower, Emily Marshall of Nashville North. Back row: Cruise Nights volunteer Mike Boyd, Harvey's/Swiss Chalet regional manager Byron McNabb, and volunteers Rick Thompson and Bill Gower of Cruise Nights.
