Adult Learning Centre offers computer workshops

Are you looking for employment but need to upgrade your skills?

The Adult Learning Centre is urging adults in Georgetown, Milton and Acton to register now for their upcoming computer workshops. Computer literacy is now considered an essential skill for the workplace.

The Essential Skills Computer Training for the Workplace— Learn with a small group to master basic computer skills and access online learning, part-time either days or evenings. This class is ideally suited for adults with less than post secondary education who are either looking for work or re-entering the workforce; or employed, but requiring computer skills in
