Openings still available for CVA courses

Whether you know it or not you have a creative side, come and discover it with the Credit Valley Artisans (CVA).

The CVA have been in Georgetown since 1975. Conveniently located (lots of free parking) in Cedarvale Park, the small historical Cottage is home to four Guilds: Pottery, Palette & Pencil, Stained Glass and Weavers.

Enjoy many of the four- or six-week courses offered by the Guilds; go home with a handmade gift for Christmas this year! Or come with a friend or family member to a weekend workshop. Beadwork, Moccasin Making are two one-day only classes offered in November.

Friendly knowledgeable instructors are on hand for all courses. There is something for all age groups and levels: Drawing for Youth (12-18 yrs old) is offered this month; Kids Art Fun (5-10 years old) is offered Sunday mornings from Oct. 19 to Nov. 9.

Please visit the CVA website for more information and courses offered for adults and kids at: www.creditvalleyartisans.ca

Feel free to drop by the Cottage on the hill in Cedarvale Park, the corner of Main Street and Maple Ave. where there is a mailbox filled with brochures and registration forms.

Plan to visit the Cottage on Saturday, Nov. 22 or Sun. Nov. 23 when the artisans hold their annual Christmas sale. Many One-of-A-Kind works of art will be on sale to the discriminating buyer.
