The Spirit of Maud Theatre Company presents: a new work, Anne and Maud, that celebrates two Canadian Treasures: Anne Shirley (Anne of Green Gables) and Lucy Maud Montgomery. Dramatist Marion Abbott has crafted a piece that combines excerpts from Montgomery's journals and the classic story of Anne Shirley who is mistakenly sent to live with Marilla and Matthew Cuthbert. This new work highlights the passion and genius of Lucy Maud Montgomery as she created her world famous red headed heroine. The play will open Friday, October 24 and will run for four weekends at St. Paul's Anglican Church Parish Hall in Norval. Cans for a canoe

The 2FortyTwo Church of Georgetown recently raffled a 15-foot hand-crafted cedar canoe, with the $2,002 in proceeds going to the Georgetown Bread Basket. 2FortyTwo parishioner Mark Hodgins (right) built and donated the canoe, which was won by a Georgetown couple and plans to have another ready to raffle in the spring. Accepting the donation is Kevin Flynn (right), director of event co-ordinating for the Bread Basket, and 2FortyTwo Church lead pastor Dustin Boreland. 2FortyTwo Church meets every Sunday at the Norval United Church at 486 Guelph St. in Norval at 1 p.m.
