

Lawn bowling club hangs up whites for the season

By FRANK ANTHONY
Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club

Georgetown lawn bowlers have just completed another successful season and members gathered at their clubhouse recently to review the year's activities and elect changes to their executive board and plan for the 2015 year.

Fran Anthony has completed her term as director but has taken up the position of secretary. June Gilson will begin her three-year term as director and Helen Hoerig will look after organizing the ladies' tournaments.

Sandy Stansfield and Martha Jack were thanked for time of service on the executive board.

Members wish to express appreciation and thanks to its sponsors, and those who kindly supported the club's fundraising events. This generous support enables us to continue to offer lawn bowling at our historic facilities here in downtown Georgetown.

Our 2014 Tournament sponsors were

- Diane Malcolm— Alice Gray Trophy
- Paul Armstrong Insurance Brokers Ltd.— Armstrong Trophy
- J.S. Jones & Son Funeral Home – Jones Trophy
- Die Mold Tools – Sons of Scotland Trophy
- Toni Lozinski – Ladies Luncheon Trophy
- Bill McKeown, ReMax - Bill McKeown Realty Trophy
- Steve Jenkins, Johnson Associates – Steve Jenkins Realtor Trophy
- Georgetown Chrysler Ltd. – Chrysler Trophy

Lawn bowling has been available at the Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club for well over a century at the historic club house at the corner of Edith and William Streets.

Look for our 2015 season to begin in May of next year. Lawn bowling is a fun, inexpensive sport that can be enjoyed by young and old alike. It is easy to learn and can be challenging. We welcome you to come try our sport.
