Become suicide alert through SafeTALK program

Distress Centre North Halton hosts a three-hour suicide prevention workshop, SafeTALK, next week.

Suicide alertness is for everyone. Learn four basic steps to recognize persons with thoughts of suicide and connect them with suicide helping resources.

DISTRESS CENTRE
NORTH HALTON

SafeTALK is for anyone who wants to help prevent suicide including front-line workers, clergy, volunteers, parents, youth, teachers and law enforcement.

Anyone, who wants to be a suicide alert helper!

The workshop will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 28, 7-10 p.m. in the community room at the Georgetown police station, 217 Guelph St., Georgetown.

Cost: $5 per person (for materials).

Please e-mail Gail at

... Lend Me Your Ears
 By Cory Soal R.H.A.D.
WHAT SHOULD I EXPECT FROM HEARING INSTRUMENTS!
 Part 2
 * Understanding speech is a brain function and although the hearing instruments will give your brain the tools it needs to understand speech, it takes training and patience to improve your ability to understand.
 * Different listening situations will offer different abilities to understanding. Noisy situations are harder to hear conversation even for normal hearing individuals; hearing instruments should improve your ability, but will not allow you to perform as a normal hearing individual.
 * Many sounds that you hear will sound different, or more distinct, to you. This is because your diminished hearing over a long period of time has trained your brain to accept the slight differences in the sounds you normally hear. Wearing hearing instruments will bring back the original sounds as they should be heard, although different to you. With time your brain will accept the new changes to these sounds.
 * Hearing instruments should allow you to understand speech better in most situations than without your hearing instruments.

Have Your Say – Protecting Energy Consumers
How well are consumers protected in Ontario's retail energy market?
 That's the question the Ontario Energy Board (OEB) is looking at with its review of the Energy Consumer Protection Act. The Act deals with energy retailing to low-volume consumers in the province. Just over 300 thousand residential and small business consumers in Ontario currently have contracts with electricity retailers; 362,000 have contracts with natural gas marketers.
 Please visit www.ECPAreview.ca and fill out the on-line survey to share your views on consumer protection with the OEB.
