

Trick or Treat in Acton

The family of gnomes enjoys the Trick or Treat on Mill & Main Street hosted by the Acton BIA on Saturday. Laszlo, Myla and Bompa Csaki enjoy the day with six-year-old twins Chloe and Layla and their four-year-old sister Miki.

All photos by Ray Lavender

Abby Besco, 2, of Acton shows off her pumpkin.

Megan Nattress, 10, of Acton shows off her amazing dragon costume

Scott and Melissa Reynolds of Acton with their Dragon, son Henry, 2.

Laura Gauthier enjoys handing out candy at MacKinnon Funeral Home with her daughters Lili, 6 and Gracie, 3.

Halloween Night Haunting fundraiser

Tony Marras of 29 Banning Rd. in Georgetown (off Hwy. 7 near the Watch Tower Bible & Tract Society) is hosting a fundraising event on Halloween Night (Friday, Oct. 31).

He has created a haunted graveyard in his backyard with scary tunnels into his garage that has more Halloween-themed displays.

The free event is open to the public from dusk until 10 p.m. but non-perishable food donations are appreciated. The donations will go to the Salvation Army.

Trunk or Treat in the rural area

Trunk or Treat! Please bring the children to Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church (NPC) on Halloween (Friday, Oct. 31) between 6 and 7:30 p.m. for treats from our decorated trucks or car trunks! One stop for children in the rural Nassagaweya area! For more information, please call 905-854-1055 or email info@nassagaweya.com. More decorated cars welcome but let us know if you would like to come to hand out treats. NPC is located at 3097 15 Sideroad, just east of Guelph Line.

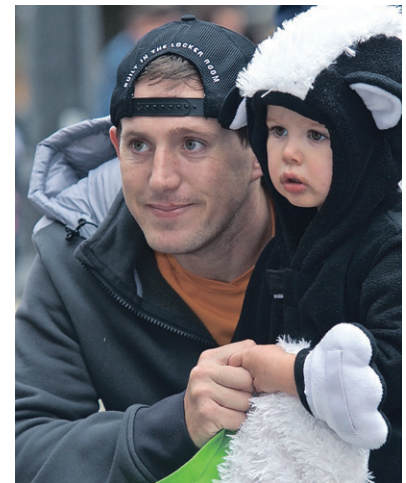

Masquerade on Main

You didn't have to be a kid, only one at heart, like Isobel Voskerejian and daughter Tamara to enjoy the Masquerade on Main St. hosted by the Downtown Georgetown BIA on Saturday.

All photos by Jon Borgstrom

Dads and sons enjoyed the day such as (left photo) two-year-old Jaxon Baskin on the shoulders of his dad Will and (right photo) two-year-old Keaghan Kennery who stayed close to dad Kyle with all the spooky creatures out and about.

Three-year-old Matilda Freeman enjoys a treat.

One-year-old Cole Longland is wide-eyed as he watches.

Asbuilt COMFORT CARE

Halton Hills' #1 choice in Heating, Cooling + Fireplaces since 1989

905.877.8023

