

Ghoulish buffet

Resident Antonis Weijers of Mountainview Residence & Terrace wasn't exactly enamoured with the dessert selections such as brains and eyeball soup offered by Haunted House 'Mad Scientist' Janice Dauphinee of the facility's life enrichment department Wednesday afternoon. The residents took a tour of the Haunted House, which also featured a 387-pound pumpkin on display for the week's Halloween festivities, and Nicolai the fortune teller from Transylvania provided some spooky prognostications. As well as the Haunted House, residents will be wearing scary costumes for a Halloween party Thursday from 5-7 p.m., and on Friday morning, Totty Tots Daycare is slated to drop by for a visit. The community is invited to stop in for trick-or-treating on Friday from 5:30-6:30 p.m. Amidst all the chaos, resident Eleanor McLeod celebrated her 90th birthday on Tuesday.
