

Police blotter: Man charged with theft

A Georgetown man is facing charges after an employee from a store in a Queen St. Acton plaza came out to his car parked at the rear of the building and found a man closing his car door while holding the employee's cell-phone and wallet shortly after noon Friday.

The employee grabbed the man and held him until police responded. Charged with breach of probation and theft under $5,000 is Christopher Marrows, 29.
