Police say 'Lock it or lose it' Rash of vehicle break-ins in town

Halton Police remind area residents to keep their vehicles locked after an increase over the past week in overnight thefts from cars in Halton Hills.

The reported incidents have occurred during the overnight hours and involve thieves entering unlocked vehicles to steal loose change and other valuables.

The latest rash of incidents has occurred in the rural areas along Eighth Line through the rural and urban areas of Georgetown, as well as along Winston Churchill Blvd. north of Steeles Ave.

In addition to keeping vehicle doors locked, owners can mitigate the risk of theft by keeping valuables out of sight or removing them keeping their vehicles in a garage or well-illuminated area.

Anyone with information related to these incidents is asked to contact police at 905-878-5511 ext. 2114 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS) or www.haltoncrimestoppers.com or by texting "Tip201" with the message to 274637 (crimes).
