

Town raises flag for Woman Abuse Prevention Month

The Town of Halton Hills is raising a special flag for the month of November to commemorate Woman Abuse Prevention Month. The flag will be up at Town Hall until the end of the month. Halton Women's Place created the flag— End Violence Against Women— in hopes to raise more awareness about the issue. Halton Women's Place is the only women's shelter in the Region with shelters in both Milton and Burlington. This month, along with Woman Abuse Prevention Month, they are organizing the Shine the Light Campaign, asking businesses to turn purple for the month. HWP is also selling purple Wrapped in Courage scarves for only $10; email Kaitlin, kgordon@haltonwomensplace.com For more information about these events contact Carm at 905-332-1200 ext. 222 or by email at cbozzo@haltonwomensplace.com. From left are Councillor Bryan Lewis, Mayor Rick Bonnette, Melissa Hiller, Halton Women's Place Residential Supervisor, Carm Bozzo, HWP Development Manager, Councillors Joan Robson and Jon Hurst.
