

Artisans' Attic adds new member, just in time for fall/winter show

SUSAN KERR

The artists of the Artisans' Attic have added a new member—gifted stained glass artist Susan Kerr. Kerr brings her new beautiful fine art glass to the co-operative with her stained glass lamps, vases, windows and ornaments. She has over 30 years of experience in the stained glass field as well as being an excellent and sought-after teacher.

Kerr will also be part of Artisans' Attic's upcoming new art show "Wild Ones, where animal art abounds," opening Saturday Nov. 22, at Artisans' Attic, 73 Main St. S., Downtown Georgetown. The Artisans' Attic artists have gone wild with creative ways to bring animals into their art. Meet Kerr; as well as the other artists, at the art show opening starting at noon on that day. For more information please call 905-877-7065.

The Artisans' Attic, an artisan's co-operative that houses the original work of more than 30 dynamic artists is in its 18th year on Main St. in downtown Georgetown. The abundance of skilled and beautiful work displayed at this store/gallery includes; functional and decorative pottery, weaving, basketry, jewelry, original paintings and limited edition prints, photography, stained glass, blown glass, papier mache, fibre arts, metal sculpture and so much more.
