

Montgomery Christmas set for Saturday

Montgomery Christmas returns on Saturday, Nov. 29 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Norval.

Each year, Norval celebrates the life and works of famous Canadian author Lucy Maud Montgomery, a former Norval resident from 1926-1935.

Montgomery was born November 30, 1874 and the village honours the author on her birthday or as close to her birth date each year.

This year's event will feature a new play, honouring Montgomery— A Kindred Spirit Christmas— performed by the Spirit of Maud Theatre Company, 3:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Parish Hall. For tickets and info go to www.spiritofmaudtheatrecompany.com

Also this year, the three villages church— Norval United, Norval Presbyterian and St. Paul's will hold church bazaars including luncheons, beginning at 9 a.m. A bake sale and lunch hosted by St. Elias the Prophet Church will be held at The Wellness Centre, 523 Guelph St.

At Crawford's Village Bake Shop, which is closing its doors on Nov. 30, there will be a book signing by Benjamin Lefebvre on his book, Volume 3: A Legacy in Review. The Bake Shop is also home to the Lucy Maud Montgomery Museum.
