

It's the treat that just keeps on giving. The local annual Smile Cookie campaign raised close to $7,800 by the four Georgetown-based Tim Hortons' Restaurants for the Halton Region office of the Canadian Mental Health Association. From Sept. 15-21, customers could purchase chocolate chunk Smile Cookies for $1, with all proceeds benefiting the CMHA's mental health services in Georgetown. Linda Horsky (centre) from the Georgetown branch of the Canadian Mental Health Association, accepts a cheque worth $7,764 from representatives of the four Georgetown Tim Hortons locations earlier this week. Also in the photo, from left, are: Peter Brzozowicz, general manager of three of the local Tim Hortons' outlets, Georgetown South store assistant manager Chelsea Blum and store manager Julie Korhonen, and John Malinosky, owner of the Tim
