Are you changing your lifestyle because of incontinence?

Let us help you regain your confidence and independence

Did you know?

The scientific research clearly shows that physiotherapy should be the first line of treatment for incontinence.

Many people believe that incontinence; the involuntary loss of urine, is a normal occurrence after childbirth or aging. Continence concerns are common but NOT normal.

Stress Incontinence (SI) refers to leakage that is noticed during a cough or sneeze, when laughing, or during strenuous activities like soccer, jumping jacks, or other aerobic activities. Sometimes women get the sudden and urgent need to get to a bathroom. Urge Incontinence (UI) is the loss of urine that is accompanied by this sudden, urgent feeling.

Leakage may have started off with minimal and tolerable amounts of leakage that occurred with a cough or sneeze, but then leakage can accelerate to amounts that are substantial enough to wear protective padding, continence garments or simply just avoiding activities that were once enjoyed.

Georgetown Children's Chorus to perform two Christmas concerts

Come join the 100 kids in the Georgetown Children's Chorus as they present the choir's 23rd-annual Christmas concert, In a Galilee Far, Far Away, on Sunday, Dec. 14 (1 p.m. and 4 p.m. performances) at the John Elliott Theatre.

Conducted by Music Director Dale Wood, the concert starts off with the darling five- and six-year-olds singing tunes like "African Noel", "Run, Rudolph, Run" and "Do You Hear What I Hear?". You can imagine their excitement when they sing "Santa's in the House!"

The Performance and Senior Choirs sing music with four-part harmonies, featuring songs like "The Gift Goes On," "Each Child," "Gloria Deo Up in the Sky" and "It's Beginning to Look Like Christmas."

The teenagers especially enjoy "Sing Joy!" "Ding a Ding a Ding" and their hands down favourite, the rock n roll hit, "Christmas - (Baby Please Come Home)" by Phil Spector and Jeff Barry. The choirs finish with John Rutter's stunning rendition of "I Wish you Christmas".

Following intermission, 60 kids—ages seven to 11—blast off with the rock Christmas musical of galactic proportions: In A Galilee Far, Far Away... complete with costumes, sets and choreography set to lively, rock music. The space crew is on an interplanetary exploration to discover the universe, and beyond! Through a series of fortunate events, their journey leads them back to a manger in Bethlehem. Filled with ultra-hip songs and an incredible Christmas story, get ready to boldly go where no kids' choir has ever gone before!

Special guest singer is Joanna Fraser, who is the Artistic Director of show.

Tickets are $20 for adults and $15 for 18 and under. Tickets are available in person at the JET box office (at the Georgetown Library) or online at www.haltonhills.ca/theatre/.

Call Lois Fraser (905-877-4411 ext. 253) if your child is considering joining choir in January and she will supply you with a free ticket.
