

Marnie Hughes of Communications Artistry receives the Business of the Month award from Dean Teasdale of the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce's membership services committee and his Norbram Group Insurance Benefits Inc.

Business of the Month: Communication Artistry

The Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce has selected Marnie Hughes's Communication Artistry firm based in Georgetown as its Business of the Month for January.

With a self-professed passion for writing, Hughes has spent more than two decades in the communications industry and has operated Communications Artistry for 15 years.

She specializes in a wide variety of writing services, including marketing and searchengine optimization, business blogging as well as website and marketing strategies for small and medium businesses.

Hughes has also written a how-to book called Writer Inc. for those who might be interested in starting up their own writing business.

Along with operating her own business, Hughes volunteers her time with the Chamber for its annual H5 trade show.
