U-15 Impact earns spot in Bugarski Cup tournament

Winning their first tournament together as a team, the Georgetown under-15 girls' Impact emerged victorious from the 12-team Ontario Volleyball Association McGregor Cup under-16 Trillium A event on Saturday in Stratford.

The Impact lost its first game of the day but that was it, sweeping through its five matches, including a 25-21, 25-17 triumph over the top-ranked Waterloo Tigers Black in the final, to earn elevation to the championship tier and a berth in the Bugarski Cup provincial championship on March 7 at a yet-to-be-determined location.

Coach Tim Davis's squad is looking to jump from the championship tier to the premier loop at the under-15 level with a strong performance at an OVA tournament in Barrie this weekend.

Raiders win five in a row

Rookie Josh Dickinson scored twice to earn first-star honours as the host Georgetown Raiders downed the Mississauga Chargers 5-1 on Saturday night in an Ontario Junior Hockey League matchup.

Wyatt Hicken, with his first Jr. A goal, John Adams and Zack Dybowski also tallied for the 31-5-3-5 Raiders, who've won five straight games and eight of their last nine.

League-leading scorer Steve Hladin picked up three assists and Marc Williams had the win in goal, making 21 stops.

Georgetown has just one game coming up this week, a home date with the Buffalo Jr. Sabres Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at the Alcott Arena.

It was also announced that a postponed contest with the Trenton Golden Hawks has been rescheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 17 in Georgetown at 7:30 p.m.

Local minor baseball groups join forces

The newly formed Halton Hills Minor Baseball Association, which has merged the Georgetown and Acton organizations for the 2015 season, has a festival planned for Saturday, Feb. 7 at the Cedarvale Community Centre from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

On that day, the new rep team uniforms will be revealed and sizing will be taken for team members. A ceremony will also take place to officially mark the amalgamation.
