Somerville tops list of regional councillors with high pay

It cost Halton Region about $1.34 million last year to pay council members and the Regional Chair.

Halton Hills Regional Councillor Clark Somerville's total earnings at the Region were second only to Regional Chair Gary Carr due to his duties with the Federation of Canadian Municipalities (FCM).

CLARK SOMERVILLE

Somerville, who serves as FCM's Second-Vice President, received $14,454 in conference expenses (significantly more than his colleagues) in addition to the $53,597 in salary and benefits he is paid as a regional councillor. He also received $1,279 for car mileage and other expenses, for a total of $69,330.

Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette received a regional salary/benefits of $53,720, $1,449 in conference expenses and $976 for mileage and other expenses—totaling $56,145.

Regional Councillor Jane Fogal earned $53,597 in salary from Halton Region, $2,909 in conference expenses and $1,462 for mileage and other expenses—totaling $57,968.

Those totals do not include what they are paid by the Town of Halton Hills to serve as local councillors. The Town's annual remuneration and expenses report is expected to be complete and submitted to Council in late March or early April.

Carr earned a total of $227,490 last year—$215,592 in salary/benefits, $6,497 in conference expenses and $5,400 in mileage and other expenses.

Euale retires

At the Halton District School Board meeting last week, trustees accepted the resignation of Director of Education David Euale. Euale, who has been with HDSB for five years, will retire effective August 31, 2015.

Trustees will determine the process for the hiring and appointment of a new Director of Education at an upcoming meeting.
