HEART MONTH: The staff at Guardian Young's Pharmacy & Homecare in downtown Georgetown has held a number of in-store and workplace-based "Healthy Heart" clinics in February to bring awareness to Heart Month. Young's Pharmacy is a training partner of the Canadian Red Cross monthly First Aid and CPR courses taught on-site by a registered nurse. Heart Month is the Heart & Stroke Foundation's key opportunity to reach millions of Canadians in February and alert them to the risks of heart disease and stroke. Pharmacist Lisa Bowen (left) demonstrates proper CPR technique on a mannequin with assistance from Guardian Young's Pharmacy & Homecare mobility consultant Stacey Fortin.
