

Skuriat 'never missed a practice'

She has also participated in Acadia's Relay for Life for the past two years, is an active member of Acadia's WITS anti-bullying program and belongs to the Acadia Players Association. This past fall, Skuriat helped to organize the Hoops for Luke charity basketball game to raise funds for a S.M.I.L.E. participant's wheelchair lift.

In April 2014, she travelled to Honduras with the Acadia chapter of the Global Medical Brigades (GMB). GMB is a student-led global health and sustainable development organization.

"Elizabeth is an outstanding student-athlete in every respect," said Acadia swim coach David Fry. "She is an outstanding student with a tremendous work ethic. She has never missed a practice in my year as her coach and her achieving a CIS standard was a testimony to this hard work. She is a tremendous mentor and leader as one of our team co-captains. That she can combine this with many and varied community involvements is amazing."

Members of Georgetown District High School's boys' junior and senior basketball teams had some new fans in the stands for a couple of home games this season. Several residents at the Bennett Health Care Centre attended two Rebels' contests and the students returned the favour by dropping by the long-term healthcare facility. Pictured above, from left, are Daniel Allen, Bernice Emond, Braden O'Brien, Steve Fisher and Dominic Walker. Submitted photo
