ENTERTAINMENT

Libertas Male Choir returns to Georgetown on March 13

The Libertas Male Choir of about 100 men from all over Ontario will be going this spring to Holland to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the liberation from the Nazi regime. They will be performing in 10 different concerts throughout the country.

To raise money for the trip, the choir will be performing in Georgetown Christian Reformed Church on Friday, March 13.

Martin Mans from Holland will be directing the choir, along with Andre Knevel on the organ and Liselotte Rokyto on the panflute. Veterans will be honoured that evening.

Tickets are available at Bergsma's Paint & Décor; $18 adults, $10 youth ($14 and under), children under 10 free.

Tickets will also be at the door.
