for the job against retired Georgetown doctor Don Trant, already certified as a Liberal nominee for Wellington-Halton Hills and high school teacher Diane Ballantyne of Fergus. A nomination meeting will be held by the once all three nominees have been certified.

"My work ethic, business success, and love of community are the foundations upon which I plan to build my political career with the party that upholds Canadian values: The Liberal Party of Canada," he said.

Mimnagh and his wife Debbie have lived in the Halton Hills area for 32 years, raising three sons in the business.

"My lifelong community involvement in addictions counselling has engendered in me a desire to further serve the residents of Halton Hills," said Mimnagh.
