

Ken Noakes, as the classic English sleuth, addresses the suspects (Kathy Venneman, McLean Edwards and Doug McDougall) in the murder mystery "Dead on Nine", playing at Century Church Theatre, Hillsburgh, March 20-29.

Acton teacher co-stars in Century Church theatre play

Opening March 20, Century Theatre Guild continues its season with an intriguing whodunit, Dead on Nine by Jack Popplewell. The play is entered in the ACTCO Festival.

Set in a quiet little fishing village in post-war England, Dead on Nine is a classic murder mystery chock full of twists and turns. Frustrated playwright Robert Leigh and his scheming, restless wife Esmeralda engage in a proverbial game of cat-and-mouse, weaving a web of lies, revenge, and premeditated murder. Throw in a dedicated personal secretary, a WWII veteran playboy and a seasoned detective and you have the makings of a great evening of entertainment.

Directed by Martyn Worsnop, this suspenseful mystery boasts a stellar cast of characters: McLean Edwards as playwright Robert Leigh; Jennifer Bartrum as his restless wife Esmeralda; Ken Noakes as detective Richard Farrow; Acton teacher Doug MacDougall as playboy Tom Hammond; Kathy Venneman as secretary Marion Dale; and Lorraine Hickling as housekeeper Gladys Fotheringhay, with a special cameo appearance by Martyn Worsnop as entertainer Leslie Booth.

Dead on Nine runs March 20-29 at the Century Church Theatre in Hillsburgh, Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m., and Sundays at 2:30 p.m. Tickets are $20, and can be reserved by calling the box office at 519-855-4586. Enjoy a special 3-course Sunday Lunch at The Pantry Shelf in Hillsburgh for $20 including tax; this must be prebooked with your tickets.
