

SCOTT WOODS

Fiddler Scott Woods to play concert at Nashville North

Renowned Canadian fiddle champion Scott Woods and his band will be at Nashville North in Norval, 7 p.m. on Tuesday, March 31, to present an incredible new show called Fiddling in the key of...Eh?

The show will benefit the Georgetown Legion's Ladies Auxiliary.

This fast-paced, uplifting show explores great Canadian fiddling styles and influences from Cape Breton and Scottish to Acadian and Irish to French Canadian, Metis and Eastern Europe. The show features plenty of old time fiddling, championship step dancing, trick fiddling, family humour and other aspects of our culture that have become symbols of what truly makes us Canadian.

Scott Woods is a two-time winner of the Canadian Open Fiddle Contest, two-time winner of the Canadian Grand Masters Fiddle Championship as well as Fiddle Entertainer of the Year. He is known affectionately across Canada as 'The Flippin' Fiddler' and tours extensively across the country every year raising funds for churches, charities and community service organizations.

Joining Scott and the band is Cape Breton tenor and one of Nova Scotia's finest vocalists, Tommy Leadbeater, guitar virtuoso and East Coast Music Award winner, Bruce Timmins and lighting up the stage with his fancy footwork is champion step dancer Patrick Linton.

Tickets are $25 adults, $10 kids (age 6-12) and kids (5 and under) free. Advance tickets are recommended; call toll free 1-855-SCOTTWOODS (1-855-726-8896).
