Sex Please, We're Sixty promises to be comedic romp

By Roxanne Thornton
Georgetown Little Theatre

Full of naughty jokes and unseemly innuendoes, one will have a riotous good time enjoying the zany plot of Michael and Susan Parker's Sex Please, We're Sixty, presented by Georgetown Little Theatre. It opens at the John Elliott Theatre, 9 Church St., Georgetown on Friday, April 17.

Directed by Mike Butterworth and produced by Gina Van Raalte, the story revolves around six very delightful and different seniors.

Mrs. Stancliffe's (Patricia Ball) Rose Cottage Bed & Breakfast attracts older, single female guests year after year. Next door lives our weak-backed, senior, sex machine, "Bud The Stud" (Mike Tadic), an unabashed lothario always on the prowl for "chicks." Thankfully her other neighbour, her would-be suitor Henry Mitchell (Bob Land) is a thoughtful retired chemist. Unlike Bud's little blue pills, Henry has developed ones called "Venusia" which are intended to aid the libido of menopausal females.

The fun begins when Bud gets caught three times: Victoria Ambrose (Sharonne Young), a romantic novelist whose lack of personal romance has caused a writer's block; Hillary Hudson (Karen Brodie), a sophisticated former co-worker of Henry, whose secretive mission creates riotous havoc; and Charmaine Beauregard (Patti Caruso), a southern belle whose fiery, independent nature gives Buddy boy a real workout.

The "Chicks" then replace Bud's Viagra with Venusia and enjoy the humour of man dealing with hormonal imbalance.

But of course there has to be a twist!

So why not visit Rose Cottage, where one will be led in and out of all sorts of "Viagra-Venusia" induced mischief.

Sex Please We're Sixty will be performed at the John Elliott Theatre on April 17, 18, 22, 23, 24, 25 evenings at 8 p.m. and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 19.

For tickets: $24 (adult); $20 (Seniors 60+) and students with ID $5, call the JET Box Office 905-877-3700 or online at www.halton-hills/theatre. Further information at www.georgetownlittletheatre.ca.
