

The staff and management at Georgetown Toyota played their own version of The Biggest Loser through the months of February and March to collectively drop some pounds for a good cause. Three teams put their waists to the test and the group called The Untouchables (pictured above) emerged victorious in a 50/50-style contest, earning $500 from Georgetown Toyota, which they donated to the Georgetown Bread Basket to make a $1,000 presentation to the local food bank. Blair Roedding (third from left), director for the Georgetown Bread Basket, accepts a cheque for $1,000 from the employees of Georgetown Toyota, who took up The Biggest Loser challenge over the past couple of months. Also in the photo, from left, are Georgetown Toyota's Ryan McGrail, Nick Cunha, Peggy Sue Gelley, Kevin Wood, Gord Russell, Terri Geddes, Mark Smith, Peter Jonkman, Craig Rigby.
