Family movie afternoon is part of Walk for ALS Kickoff event

Georgetown/Acton Walk for ALS holds its ALS Kickoff event on Sunday, May 3, 2 p.m. at St. George's Anglican Church.

The event includes a Family Movie Afternoon, showing the feature film, Paddington.

Free admission, however, donations are greatly appreciated towards the Walk for ALS. There will be door prizes to be won and free popcorn and refreshments. All are welcome, and kids are encouraged to bring blankets and/or pillows. This event is sponsored by Meldrum Orthodontics.

During the event learn about the Walk for ALS to be held on June 6 in Georgetown.

PROTECT YOUR PET

With the arrival of spring we are all happy to spend more time outdoors. However with that comes ticks and fleas and soon mosquitoes too.

Call us today to set up an appointment to have your dog's heartworm test done and we can discuss the prevention that is best suited for the needs of your pet. Although there is reduced risk for household cats to be exposed to heartworm disease, they do need flea protection!
