Canadian Tire-Georgetown talks turkey

As part of the recent remodeling of the Georgetown Canadian Tire location on Guelph St., the hunting and fishing department has been expanded and moved to a more central location in the store.

Store manager Tracey Craig said the expansion was undertaken in response to customers' requests for a larger selection of items in stock and their desire to shop locally.

The latest models of fishing reels, lures and fish-finding electronics, as well as hunting apparel and firearms are in stock and special orders can also be accommodated just in time for the opening of the respective seasons.

Craig noted that the Georgetown outlet sells more turkey hunting-related merchandise than any other store in the province.

Full Ministry of Natural Resources licensing is also available on the premises.
