COMMUNITY

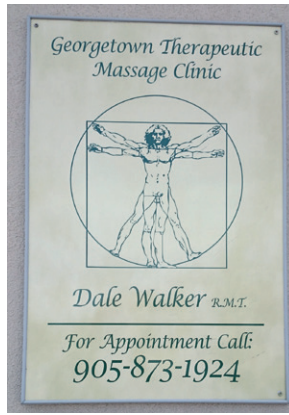

Georgetown Therapeutic Massage Clinic closes

After 24 years as a Downtown Georgetown fixture, Georgetown Therapeutic Massage Clinic closed its doors on May 1.

Owner Dale Walker, who has been a resident of Georgetown since he was a child, has decided to retire. He thanks the community of Halton Hills for all their years of support.

Known around Halton Hills for his baseball career, Walker opened Georgetown Therapeutic Massage in 1991 in Downtown Georgetown, where he's been ever since. For the past 13 years the business was located in Young's Pharmacy.

Walker was voted best Massage Therapist for three years in a row in The Independent & Free Press's Reader's Choice awards.
