CTK STUDENTS CLEAN UP: Several members of Christ the King Secondary School's E-Team were picking up trash in Cedarvale Park last week at the community clean-up as part of their mission to beautify Halton Hills. The students combined to collect a large garbage bag full of trash on top of what they collected recently at CTK's clean-up day on the school grounds. The E-Team also put together a YouTube movie called Earth Day Gone Wrong and will be posting more video clips on their channel in the near future. The group also installed three water-bottle refilling stations at CTK recently. From left, CTK E-Team members Sydney Welsh (with dog Squishy), Cindy Dziuba, Liza Cui and Maddie Shiell picked up a large garbage bag worth of trash at the community clean-up last week in Cedarvale Park to help mark Earth Day. Submitted photo

CLEANING UP THE BENNETT CENTRE GROUNDS: The Bennett Centre (long term care home) leadership team participated in the Halton Hills 22-Minute Makeover event last Wednesday April 22 for Earth Day. With all that litter collected, the grounds at the Bennett are all set for residents, families and staff to enjoy now the nice weather is here. (It IS here, isn't it?) Standing, from left to right are: Mike Trendafilov, Laura Toogood, Brian Jackson, Alison Agnew, Cindy McCoy, Norma Frost. Crouching in the centre is Greg Heaney. Submitted photo
