

Blacked-out

Chevrolet has announced it will sell a special edition blacked-out package for the Chevrolet Impala based on a concept shown at the 2014 SEMA Show in Las Vegas. Arriving in dealerships early this summer, the Impala Midnight Edition is outfitted to give the full-size sedan a more dramatic, sinister look. The Midnight Edition includes: Jet Black exterior, including body colour mirrors; 19-inch machine-faced; aluminum wheels with black accents; Black grille and surround; Front and rear black Chevrolet bowtie; Jet Black interior; sport pedals and black rear spoiler. The Impala Midnight Edition will be available with a choice of two powertrains – the standard 2.5-litre four-cylinder with stop/start technology and a 3.6-litre V6 that is the most powerful naturally aspirated engine in the segment. The Midnight Edition will be available for the 2016 model year, although a small number of 2015 Midnight Editions will be produced in the 2LT trim level with the standard 2.5-litre engine.
