Toronto police have warrant out for Acton man

Toronto Police have issued a warrant for the arrest of an Acton man in connection with a pharmacy robbery Sunday.

Police say Nicholas Pereira, 18, of Acton is wanted on a series of charges: robbery, conspiracy to commit an indictable offence, assault with a weapon, administer a noxious substance, disguise with intent and possession of property obtained by crime.

The robbery occurred at 10:30 a.m. in the Lakeshore Blvd. West and Mimico Ave. area. Police allege that two men wearing disguises entered the pharmacy and approached a 48-year-old woman.

One man sprayed the woman in the face with pepper spray then they forced her to the safe where they obtained various narcotics, said police.

The men fled and got into a nearby vehicle, which was being driven by a woman.

Police said the vehicle fled through a residential area at high speed, lost control and rolled several times. The occupants fled the scene, but a man and a woman were later arrested. Another male is still outstanding.

Anyone with information is asked to contact police, 416-808-7350, Crime Stoppers 416-222-TIPS (8477)
