COMMUNITY

Approximately 1,400 elementary school students in Halton Hills took part in Candlelight Tribute Silent Walks last Thursday in Georgetown and Glen Williams, with another held Thursday night. The ceremonies marked the 70th anniversary of Victory in Europe and Canada's important military role in the Allied efforts. The Candlelight Tribute is a symbolic passing of the torch of remembrance in honour of those who served in the cause of peace and freedom. It might have been a bit of a breach in protocol, but Grade 1 Glen Williams Public School student Rhoenin Downes couldn't help but give his grandfather and veteran Clay Downes a big hug during the Candlelight Tribute ceremony last Thursday afternoon at the Glen Williams Cenotaph.
