Acton man turns himself in after warrant issued

An Acton man is facing charges in connection with a pharmacy robbery in Toronto earlier this month. Toronto Police say the robbery occurred about 10:30 a.m. Sunday, May 10 in the Lakeshore Blvd. W. and Mimico Ave. area.

Police had arrested and charged two Toronto residents in connection with the incident and issued a warrant for the arrest of an Acton man, who surrendered himself to police on Tuesday, May 12.

Charged with robbery, conspiracy to commit an indictable offence, assault with a weapon, administer a noxious substance, disguise with intent and possession of property obtained by crime is Nicholas Pereira, 18, of Acton. He is to appear in Toronto court June 15.

Halton Hills firefighters were called to a report of grass fire on Regional Road 25, north of 17 Sideroad about 11:50 a.m. Saturday (May 9). When crews arrived the property owner was using a front-end loader to get a large fire in a field that was slowly moving toward a group of hay bales under control.

The fire had also jumped the fence at the rear of the property. By the time crews were able to extinguish the blaze, approximately 10 acres on the property had burned. The fire started from a pile of brush that the property owner was burning without a valid burn permit. The homeowner was advised that a burn permit is required and no further burning was to take place until one was obtained.
