Bike to Work Day includes noon hour ride, picnic

The Halton Hills Bicycle Friendly Community Committee would like to encourage all employees to ride their bikes to work on Monday, May 25.

The Town will once again host a noon hour ride departing from the Civic Centre at 12 p.m. This is an easy ride along the Chris Walker Trail with a stop for lunch at the Georgetown Fairgrounds. Everyone is welcome to join the ride. Please bring your own lunch.

"Cycling to work reduces greenhouse gas emissions, promotes wellness and reduces stress. It's a refreshing way to start your day," said Councillor Jane Fogal. "These are great reasons for employees to cycle to work."

To register for this event please email: hhcycling@haltonhills.ca. More information on this and other local cycling events at www.haltonhills.ca/CyclingEvents
