EVERYONE OUT OF THE POOL: Kiwanis Club of Georgetown members (from left) Angela Meyer, Chuck Barhydt and David Ashbee remove dozens of lobsters from the boiling stage before they're taken inside for further preparation during the local service club's annual Lobsterfest Friday evening at the Gellert Recreation Centre. About a thousand pounds — or 750 lobsters — were cooked up for the sold-out fundraiser. A final tally of how much was raised hadn't been tabulated as of Monday, but the Kiwanis needs to raise $40,000 to fulfill its $70,000 pledge for a donation to the Georgetown Hospital Foundation to help pay for the recent expansion.
