Metro and Halton Hills firefighters have teamed up to help fill the shelves at Georgetown Bread Basket (GBB) by putting on a food drive this Saturday (June 13).

Between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. firefighters, along with a couple of fire trucks, will be on hand at the Metro store collecting food items and monetary donations for the food bank.

Most needed items include apple and orange juice, canned pasta with meat, canned meat such as ham, tuna and chili, peanut butter, jam, cookies, crackers, snack bars, cold cereal, instant coffee, tea, sugar, canned fruit, instant side dishes, rice, pasta, salt, condiments and size 5 and 6 diapers.

Jacqui Gomez, GBB Director of Marketing and Media, said the number of families using the food bank and the number of visits are both up over last year.

In March 2014 there were 178 families and 284 food bank visits to the food bank. That compares to 182 families and 299 visits to the food bank in March 2015.

Gomez said after the holiday season there are "boxes of food right up to the rafters" in the food bank warehouse.

"That's a huge influx of food that really carries us right through to the
