Cast your vote for best Georgetown map in Georgetown Toyota's high school contest

It's not too late to cast your vote in Georgetown Toyota's contest involving three local-area high school art classes that have created their own unique maps of Georgetown.

Christ the King Secondary School, Georgetown District High School and Erin District High School all agreed to participate early in the spring and were provided with the materials to work with.

Each has submitted elaborate entries that will hang on the walls of the Georgetown Toyota showroom on Guelph St. and you can select your favourite by voting on the local automobile dealer's Facebook page: www.facebook.com/pages/Georgetown-Toyota/199357033429273

The winning school will receive a $500 donation to its art department.

Georgetown Toyota General Sales Manager Gord Russell said it's difficult to pick a winner due to the quality of the submissions and the three have already garnered hundreds of votes for the contest, which runs June 4-18. Students from all three schools have been invited to attend a barbecue on June 20 to find out the contest winner.
