Solo exhibit opens this week at Red Door Gallery

Red Door Gallery this week opens its eighth exhibition, Timeless Landscapes, a solo show by award-winning artist Gordon Mitchell.

Mitchell's love of nature and the outdoors is the inspiration for his work. He travels extensively throughout Northern Ontario including: Muskoka, Georgian Bay, Parry Sound, and the Lake Superior region of Algoma. Mitchell paints only those locations he has actually visited, which enables him to draw upon the emotional impact of a scene. Using vivid colours, his carefree brushstrokes embody the emotion of the experience and the natural and rugged beauty of Northern Ontario

"For anyone who spends time in cottage country or the near north, they will immediately recognize the rushing rivers and streams, calm inlets and bays, granite shorelines, and towering pines and firs, but more importantly, they will recognize how they feel when they are there," said Red Door Gallery Manager Kate McGowan. "And that is a rare thing indeed!"

CHANGING SEASON, NORTHERN ONTARIO

Show runs June 11-28, Thursdays and Fridays, 12-5 p.m., Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Red Door Gallery, 127 Mill St., downtown Georgetown.
