Do you have a Forster lurking in your attic?

The Helson Gallery, in cooperation with the Architectural Conservancy of Ontario's Halton Hills Branch, plans to mount a display of paintings by Norval born artist, John Wycliffe Lowes Forster (1850-1938), who achieved international recognition for his portraits of prominent persons including, Queen Victoria and Sir John A. Macdonald.

JWL Forster's portrait of Canada's first Prime Minister Sir John A. Macdonald.

paintings have been found right here in Halton Hills!

Residents are asked to check their attics, basements and walls to see if they have any J. W. L. Forster paintings that can become part of the planned display.

If you have a Forster painting and are willing to loan it, please contact Helson Gallery Curator, Judy Daley: 905-877-7915 ext. 2536 judyd@haltonhills.ca.

Confessions of a RED HEADED COFFEESHOP GIRL

Directed by MATT BERNARD
Screenplay by RON FROMSTEIN
Written & Performed by REBECCA PERRY
Music by RICHARD GAUTHIER

JULY 9-11

The Vaudevillians

July 16-18, 22-25

THE VAUDEVILLIANS
The story of vaudeville, from its early beginnings through its ultimate demise. Complete with original music, old favourites and classic sketches, including "Who's On First?"

ON GOLDEN POND

AUGUST 6-8, 12-15

ON GOLDEN POND
The classic American comedy/drama that's every bit as touching as when it debuted in 1979. A warm, witty and unique look at the modern family.

CONFESSIONS OF A REDHEADED COFFEESHOP GIRL
Meet Joanie Little: feisty redhead, anthropology graduate and barista. Joanie turns her local coffee shop upside down when she starts reporting her "findings" on the "creatures" (a.k.a. humans) of her "Coffeeshop Jungle." Hilarity ensues, bosses are angered and the local news has a heyday!
