Willow Park Ecology Centre to host Riverfest on Father's Day

On Father's Day, June 21, join in the festivities at Willow Park Ecology Centre in Norval (access off Hwy. 7, Mary St). The event is a renewal of Riverfest, which was established to celebrate local heritage and life on the Credit River.

Something for everyone, the day encompasses environment, music and art. Education, information and vendor displays and activities from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. For full schedule details visit <http://www.riverfest-norval.ca/schedule.html>.

Families are invited to come relax and enjoy the lush greenery maintained by volunteers for wildlife refuge and education opportunities. Children's activities include: scavenger hunt and ecology discovery, instrument-making, paint wooden critters for park ornaments, paint clay turtles, decorate wooden paddlers to enter the "paddle to the sea" miniature boat race (3-4:30 p.m.).

Please register at www.willowparkecolony.ca/registration.

Riverfest 2015 is a fundraiser for the education programs and events of WPEC. It is hosted in collaboration between WPEC and Norval Community Association. Door prizes are included in the registration fee.

Also on this day the Ecology Centre also honours National Aboriginal Day and Summer Solstice, 6-8 p.m. The ceremony includes a drum circle and more. Join with other cultures in celebrating the change-of-the-season, and arrival of summer in the Northern Hemisphere. Engage in spiritual renewal while immersed in nature!
