Indaba Hair Studio opens

Use of plant-based and sustainable products important

Kari-Anne Veldman, a longtime Georgetown resident and stylist, together with her daughter, Cassidy-Rae, have recently opened Indaba Hair Studio.

The word 'Indaba' is a Zulu word meaning "The Meeting Place" and with its unique country setting, nestled on the embankment of Black Creek and its rustic décor, they have created a warm, friendly and welcoming environment to meet and have your hair done.

Yes, they have great stylists and have created this wonderful space, but what they are most proud of is the fact that they are Georgetown's only Davines Exclusive Salon. This means that they only use plant-based and sustainable products in the studio, which helps reduce the amount of chemicals that we all come into contact with on a daily basis.

They feel that in this day and age this is becoming increasingly important with Cassidy-Rae adding she couldn't believe how many clients walk in the front door for the first time exclaiming how it didn't smell like a hair salon, but more like a spa.

Indaba Hair Studio offer men's, women's, and children's cuts as well as colour, highlights and extensions. A make-up artist is on staff to help you look your very best for your special occasion!

"Our stylists are knowledgeable, friendly and lots of fun! We treat each day as a new adventure and would love for you to come along for the ride!" said Kari-Anne.

Indaba Hair Studio is located at 38 Stewarttown Rd., Halton Hills. For more information call 905-877-7800, www.indabahairstudio.ca
