Founders Cup in Cowtown

Should the Halton Hills Bulldogs emerge as Ontario Jr. B Lacrosse League champions in 2015, they'll have to travel to Calgary to play for the Founders Cup Canadian championship, hosted by the Mountaineers.

It's likely the road to the Founders Cup will have to pass through Six Nations as the Rebels have won four consecutive Ontario titles, but they did lose a game last week to the 17-3 Niagara Thunderhawks to finish the regular season at 19-1.

When the Bulldogs won their first and only Founders Cup trophy in 2010, it was held in nearby Etobicoke.

Next year's Canadian championship will take place just up the road in Orangeville.
