TOWN THANKS ITS CROSSING GUARDS: The Town of Halton Hills held its annual Crossing Guard Appreciation Day for the 30 or so people who spend 10 months of the year safely getting kids to and from school. Right: Angie Lamoureux was recognized by Town of Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette for her 30 years of service as the crossing guard at the intersection of Main St./Wildwood Dr. and Confederation St. in Glen Williams. Bonnette noted that this past winter was particularly harsh for the guards, who endured 36 consecutive days from early February to March in which the daily high temperature never rose above negative double digits in Celsius. Anyone interested in becoming a guard, which consists of two one-hour shifts each weekday, can call 905-873-2601 ext. 2610, email info@haltonhills.ca or visit the website www.haltonhills.ca/schools/crossingGuards.php
