

Monster garage sale at The Old Armoury

To help with the costs of renovating and maintaining The Old Armoury, a gigantic garage sale will be held on Saturday, June 27 and Sunday, June 28, from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. at The Old Armoury in the Georgetown Fairgrounds (Park Ave. and Charles St.)

Thanks to the generosity of the Georgetown community and area, garage sale donations have been pouring in and this year's sale looks to be as outstanding as the previous three.

The Old Armoury will be celebrating its 150th birthday next year, having been constructed in 1866 as a drill hall for the local militia. The building was the rallying point for soldiers serving in both World Wars and was home to the Lorne Scots until 1997.

Globe Productions, a not-for-profit musical theatre group, began the rescue of The Old Armoury in 2009 as a home for rehearsals of its youth and adult shows, summer theatre camps and workshops. In addition, other community groups use the Old Armoury for meetings and events.

Pick up bargains while helping to preserve and enhance this important piece of Georgetown's heritage. More info: www.globeproductions.ca.
