"Our two winemakers Matt Setzkorn and Terry Rayner deserve the credit for taking our own Halton Hills berries to a competitive Canadian level," said Bert Andrews, owner of Scotch Block Winery. "We take pride in producing premium quality wine year after year, carefully crafting each wine in small batches using quality fruit from our farm. Affirmation of this effort from the All Canadian Wine Championships is very welcome."

Since opening in 1999, Scotch Block Winery has won more than 75 national awards.

Scotch Block Winery is associated with Andrews Scenic Acres pick-your-own fruit farm on 10 Sideroad in Halton Hills.
