BENNETT, Keith

Thank you on behalf of the family of Keith Bennett.

It is an understatement to say that our family was overwhelmed by the support shown to us on June 24th in the little community of Ballinafad. The cross section of people who attended touched every part of Keith's and my lives. To any we may have missed speaking to, please know your presence was felt.

Special thanks are extended to David Stewart, Pipe Major of Georgetown Pipe Band, and the McLaren's Pipes & Drums, Wiarton. The delicious buffet was provided by ladies of St. George's, Georgetown. Thank you, Maria Kiernan Smith, for reading the comforting words of scripture. We loved hearing stories about Keith from Dennis, Linda, Kelley, and Katie.

We were humbled by the numerous floral arrangements, donations, cards, and messages of sympathy. The family is grateful to Thomas C. Whitcroft Peninsula Chapel for their thoughtful support.

Personally, I could not have prepared the celebration of Keith's life without our sons, Tim and Adam, and their ladies, Teresa and Tracy. You were all amazing. Also, thank you, Sherri, for looking after details in Georgetown, and giving good hugs. Alison, please know your words of condolence to myself & GG were special. It was heartwarming to have the grandchildren close, and speaking so lovingly of their Poppa. Our lives are forever changed but with friends and family encircling us, we will get through this difficult time.
